NEW BRANCH OF R. C. W. RAILROAD.

Work on Silver Creek & Texas Feeder

TO BE FINISHED IN SPRING.

When Completed Will be One of the Finest Scenic Lines in the West.

F. E. Lomax, a constructive engineer branch of the Denver & Rio Grande Evening Post of Thursday states that the new line will undoubtedly be open for business next spring. He said: "The grade is more than one-half | anteed, once tested always used, finished, and the most difficult places have been passed. When the road is and passes, but the Silver line has a feature in the Wet Mountain valley that cannot be equalled. It is from two to eight miles wide, bordered by high mountains, and is one of the most beautiful agricultural districts in the

But we are proud of the road, also, as an engineering feat. There is a loop near the Texas creek end that is far superior as a specimen of engineering superior as a specimen of engineering skill to anything I know of. The road runs up one side of a little creek, cross-es and takes a back track, high up on the side of an overhanging cliff which projects so far that the upper track is directly over the one below. Then there is a spiral to reach a higher level making a third track above the second The three-mile post of the road is only 700 feet from the Texas Creek station.

Two weeks ago there was a big blast on our line and the Rio Grande ran specials from Pueblo, Cripple Creek and Salida. Nearly 1,500 persons were there to see the blast fired. Orman & Crook, the contractors, bored a tunnel fifty feet into the mountain and then con-structed a T-shaped crosscut about twenty feet long. Into this was placed 750 pounds of black powder and 200 pounds of giant. The opening was closed with sand and boulders. When the blast was fired it tore out the whole side of the mountain. It was probably the largest blast ever shot in this State and saved the contractors over $8,000 in labor. The blast cost

What the Rio Grande will do about what the kilo Grande will do about the other spure which were contem-plated at the same time they decided to build the Texas Creek branch, I do not know, except that they have engineers out, and rallroad contractors look contented when they are asked about the work. I think some of the new spurs will be built next summer."

the company will pay $26 a ton, or total of $3,900,000 for the entire order. The contract, it is understood, is di-vided among the Federal, Carnegie Cambria, Pennsylvania and National Steel companies.

CHINA'S DIVISION IMMINENT

Germans Claim Greatest Right to Dictate Terms of Peace Because of Von Ketteler's Murder.

Pekin, Sept. 1 .- [Correspondence of the Associated Press.]-The formal, and to those who desired to indulge their propensities to loot, very unsatisfactory march through the sacred city is over, the city is once more under close guard, only occupied by some servants of the court and a sort of secretary. When the subject of entering the sacred city was first broached, Gen. Chaffee and one or two of the generals were against the plan, but the ministers were unanimously in favor of it, arguing that the Chinese would always declare that Pekin proper had never been taken unless the sacred city was entered by foreign troops, also that it would be considered still more holy in the eyes of the people. General Chaffee based his objections on the ground that the place was practically the palace and private grounds of the emperor, and royal family, and that no public good could be gained by over-running It. Russia is laying and managing the ratiroad, and officers say it will reach Pekin in a month. Russia is also lay-ing a cable from Taku to Pekin which have but a handful of men here, the French flag files over, more buildings than those of any other nation. The Japanese have worked hard and well and it seems the opinion of most of the officers that if there is any division of territory, Japan will obtain Korea.

Everyone here seems to believe that a division of China is imminent and all think America is hardly to be taken into consideration. It is generally conceded that the most she wants is a money indemnity and possibly a coaling station. The British and American legation grounds are the central point of interest, and it is here that most of the news of the day is gathered and dis-

Th Germans claim that they have the greatest right to dictate the terms of peace, on account of the murder of Baron von Ketteler, but the other minitsers claim that theirs having been besieged, bombarded and in peril of their lives, for weeks, constitutes just as much of an affront to their respective nations as though they had been killed.
